Several Soviet troop trains passed through FALKENBERG (N 52/E 74) each day between 25 August and the end of August 1949, proceeding towards LEIZIG (N 52/E 21) and WITTENBERG (N 52/E 37).

Most of the trains carried troops, about two thousand per train. The soldiers had their heads shaved. Guns and T-34 tanks were observed on some cars of several of these trains.

[REDACTED] that there had been new inductions in the Soviet Union in May 1949. It is considered improbable that the shipments through FALKENBERG were connected with the west-bound shipments of troops leaving the LIEBEROSE area via COTTBUS (see two previous reports **).
